GREAT BRITAIN

High on the wish list of most travellers is to head to Great Britain. Whether it's the stunning highlands of Scotland, the magnificent heritage of Wales, the fascinating history of Ireland, or diverse regions of England, there's something for everyone. The options for events are limitless, and all group sizes can be accommodated. Plus of course, the UK is one of the most accessible countries in the world.

UK: What more could you ask for?

The UK is on everyone's bucket list, for a variety of reasons. Whether you're looking for culture, history, natural beauty or modernity, the UK has it all. You can be gazing at beautiful coastlines, and an hour later be in the buzz of London. A visit to Liverpool to see the home of the Beatles is just a few hours away, or if you love whisky then Scotland is all you need. Every major airline flies to the UK for one simple reason – as Oscar Wilde said: "If you are tired of London, you are tired of life".
